SALVIDERE BEATS BALLOT

THE CHAMPION OF 1906 COMES GLORI-OUSLY TO HIS OWN AGAIN.

He Wins the Annual Champion Stakes with Ease-Montgomery Also in Front of the Keene Crack-Two Favorites Win.

New York, September 14.—A great crowd of more than 30,000 people journeyed to Sheepshead Bay this afternoon and witnessed some high-class racing in which overthrows predominated and favorites fared badly, only Far West and Tourenne suucceeding in rewarding their backers. The track was fast and the weather all that could be desired.

For once the powerful Keene stable met with nothing but reverses. Its two representatives in the Great Eastern Handicap, Masque and Incognito, finished next to last, and the brilliant colt, Ballot, could do no better than finish third in the Annual Champion, after two miles of exhaustive pacemaking. His downfall was compensated by Salvidere's success. The best two-year-old of last year was greatly favored by the weights, but gave evidence that he is himself again in decisive fashion. Montgomery ran in widely different fashion than in his race earlier in the week, and his finishing in front of Ballot casts a shade on that race.

J. E. Widener bought John M. P. and scratched him from the Westbury Steeplechase. He then added Sheriff Williams and won the race with him. Far West and Cressina monopolized attention in the opening six furlongs sprint. Cressina cut little figure in the running and after Sadler had shown the way to the stretch, Miller brought Far West up with a well-timed rush and won out in a close finish with Altuda. The latter has run poorly since coming east and her performance here was distinctly a surprise. Quadrille ran a good race and was a close up third. Sadler is evidently good and will be heard from speedily.

McKittredge was made a hot favorite for the Westbury Steeplechase, but met more than his match in Sheriff Williams. The latter ied throughout and won hands down from McKittredge, with Mr. McCann a far away third. The much hoped for Bayonet quit all over after going well for two miles.

The Keene pair was installed first choice for the freat Eastern. Masque flattered the followers of miles.

The Keene pair was installed first choice for the Great Eastern. Masque flattered the followers of the stable by leading to the stretch, but quit when the real racing began and at the end of an exciting rush to the winning line, Meelick was well out in front with the California colt Firestone, second, closely pressed by Julia Powel. Live Wire ran a good race and Ben Fleet was a disappointment. Mombassa got off poorly and was not persevered with.

Mombassa got off poorly and was not persevered with.

As was to be expected, Ballot was the favorite for the big race of the day, the Annual Champion at two miles and a quarter, but Salvidere, with a great pull in the weights, was so well supported that even money was the quotation against Ballot at post time. He was taken to the front by Miller after Montgomery had led for a half mile and remained in the lead until well into the homestretch in the final quarter. Then Salvidere challenged and, after a sharp drive, drew out and won by three good lengths, Ballot tiring so badly that Montgomery managed to get up and beat him for second place. Ironsides ran well for two miles and tired. It was a grandly contested race all through.

Tourenne, in good form and well ridden, was a heavily supported favorite for the fifth race and scored finally, but only by a very narrow margin from the outsider Aster d'Or. The latter had also received much backing at long odds and the ring narrowly escaped a scorching. Phil Finch finished gamely and headed Mark Antony II. out for third money.

Vino, under a vigorous ride, defeated King Cole.

Wino, under a vigorous ride, defeated King Cole and the inconsistent Druid for the last race of the day and meeting in fast time. Zipango and Ed Ball ran fairly well here.

H. B. Duryea purchased Running Water during the day for $17,000.

The stewards insisted on verifying the ownership and also the identity of Lionheart in the last race, He was formerly raced in the name R. L. Rose. Rose was ruled off by the Jockey Club.

Salvidere ran today with one hoof tightly bandaged.

MONTREAL CLOSES WITH GLORY.

Montreal, Que., September 14.—The fall meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club closed today. The weather was fine. A crowd close to 10,000 turned out. Society was very much in evidence and even standing room was at a premium on the balconies' and clubhouse lawns.

There were seven events on the program, and five of them were won by favorites. The feature race was the Ocean Gateway Selling Stakes, with $1,000 added. In the three-mile steeplechase Owalissa and King Bolt raced like a team for two and a half miles. At the nineteenth jump King Bolt took off a bit too far and in making a bad landing unseated his rider, Mr. Burnett, who pluckily clung to his horse. He remounted and finished the course and got second money.

In the mile and a half hunters' flat race, Brick Top won by half a length after a gallant struggle with the favorite Kumshaw. The pair fought it out all the last quarter and the finish aroused great enthusiasm.

The Ocean Gateway Stakes fell to Platoon, which made a runaway race. Blue Coat, which is owned by the Quebec turfman, A. Boswell, showed a great stretch run in this race and at the finish he was steadily galning on Platoon. Had Murray made his move a bit sooner with Blue Coat, the latter would undoubtedly have won.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE ORIENTAL HANDICAP.

The first Oriental was won by Dwyer Bros.' Ferona, by Glenelg. She was at 30 to 1 in the betting and Mike Dwyer felt inclined to back her, but was scared off by the price. He was an inveterate backer of short priced horses and could not be induced to back one at a long price, even his own. So be contented himself with backing Aretino for a few thousands, only to see his own filly win by a head in a desperate finish with Aretino and Elgin. The Oriental has always produced a good race and has, in its time, been won by such grand racers as Eurus, Kingston, Lamplighter, Ramapo, Clifford, Algol, Imp, Gold Heels, Colonel Bill and Dainty. Last year Oxford unexpectedly defeated Running Water and both may start again tomorrow. The record of the Oriental is:

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE FLATLANDS STAKES.

The Flatlands is one of the minor stakes of the Brooklyn Jockey Club for two-year-olds and, being a selling race, has usually been won by a lightly weighted youngster. PEQUEST STUD TO GO TO KENTUCKY. Mr. Potter Will Center Breeding Interests at Historic Woodburn.

Lexington, Ky., September 14.—R. H. McCarter Potter intends to put Flambeau on the pension list in the near future, and all his other stallions now at Pequest Stud, near Andover, N. J., and his band of broodmares, with but a few exceptions, will be sold, and Mr. Potter will confine his future breeding ventures to Kentucky. He has Knight of the Thistle and Buck Massie with a big band of mares located at Woodburn Farm near here in charge of E. L. Davis, and he will increase rather than decrease his Kentucky breeding interests.

Henry Zlegler of Cincinnati, who has for several years figured on the turf as an owner of some good racehorses, turned breeder three years ago and next season he will have out a racing string of his own breeding. The youngsters will be taken up and trained by Charley Hughes this fall and winter at the Kentucky Association track. Ziegler has in addition to his yearlings twelve weanlings coming on, and last spring he mated no less than fifteen broodmares to twelve different stallions of note. The pick of his yearlings this year are colts by Imp, Meltonian, Ethelbert and the famous Blues. He has nominated his broodmares in all the produce stakes, and will figure on the turf in the future like Belmont, Keene and Whitney as a breeder, owner and racing man.

Moharib, a Derby winner in the colors of John W. Schorr, which has been laid up in lavender for several years, is back in training, being at the Kentucky Association track, and is working well. He was bred to twenty mares last spring, and if his new owner succeeds in keeping him on the turf like some of the old stagers, in time he and colts by him will be racing at the same period. Moharib is only six years old.

William Fields has sold to F. W. Torreyson, Pittsburg, Pa., the black yearling colt by Flotow, dam Favena, by Harry O'Fallon. Torreyson is having the youngster broken here by a local trainer. The colt is a full brother to the speedy sprinter, Butinskie and is the last of the thoroughbreds which once made up the breeding plant of Fie

CARMAN STABLE FOR CALIFORNIA

Band of Shifty Selling Platers Having Much Success This Year.

R. F. Carman, for whom J. Blute trains, and who recently paid $6,000 to Bill Daly for the contract on Tommy Burns' kid brother, G. Burns, is planning a winter campaign in California. Carman is a New Yorker, has means, bets heavily and is a good winner this season. His trainer, Blute, is a skillful man, also with such a stable, made up of such shifty selling platers as Arimo, Acrobat, Mark Antony II., Fleming, Riffeman, Martha Jane and others. The stable owned and profited by Running Account before he was claimed by the Patchogue Stable.

Mark Antony II. is a handy borse, which has won six races, some $3,000 in purses, and $40,000 in bets for Carman this year. He was brought from England by ex-jockey George Thompson, who claimed him out of a selling race there for $600. At Toronto, W. J. Young claimed the horse out of a selling race and sold him to Carman. Mark Antony II.'s forte is soft going. He was no wonder in England, as has been stated. He raced thirty-two times there, eighteen times as a two-year-old, and fourteen times as a three-year-old, mostly in selling races, and won but three of them.

JOCKEY E. DUGAN IN GREAT DEMAND.

New York, September 14.—Jockey E. Dugan is very much in demand these days. He is under contract to C. E. Durnell, with second call to R. T. Wilson, Jr. Durnell may sell the contract. James B. Brady and Matt Allen want the crack lightweight. Brady was a liberal purchaser of yearlings at the recent sales and, as he has quite an establishment of older horses, he realizes that he will need a good rider next year.

Harry Payne Whitney will, it is said on excellent authority, make an effort to secure first call on Dugan when he returns from abroad. The Whitney stable has been seriously handleapped this season because it has not had a first class rider. John W. Rogers likes Dugan's work and uses the youngster for his horses whenever he can get him.

W. Rogers likes Dugan's work and uses the ster for his horses whenever he can get him.

BOOKMAKER OWNERS ARE BARRED.

The Kentucky Racing Commission Allows Louisville Sixteen Days.

Lexington, Ky., September 14.—The State Racing Commission took a forward step in turf reform today when it passed a rule preventing bookmakers and jockeys being interested in the ownership of and jockeys being interested in the ownership of horses.

The rule offered by Colonel E. F. Clay of Paris reads as follows:

"Any person who owns, wholly or in part, or is interested directly or indirectly, in any book made on races at any meeting which is licensed by this commission, shall not be permitted while being interested in such book to race, train or ride any horse only upon the track so licensed, and for violation of this rule the guilty party shall be ruled off."

The New Louisville Jockey Club was granted dates from October 16 to November 2. The application of the Latonia Jockey Club for four additional days was refused.

The Kentucky State Racing Commission has adopted a rule excluding bookmakers from racing, training or riding horses over any track licensed by it under penalty of ruling off. The old Turf Congress had a similar rule in the eighties, but it was not enforced and was allowed to drop out of sight. It remains to be seen how stringently a rule will be enforced that will decrive the Kentucky tracks of such attractions as the horses owned by Barney Schreiber, Fred Cook and other horse owning bookmakers. The commission has not been in existence for a great while, but it has already given evidence of its distinct determination to govern racing in Kentucky with close attention to details. The operation and effect of this new rule will be observed attentively elsewhere.

In England and in the east bookmakers own and race thoroughbreds without objection, but in the west there has long been an undercurrent of opinion that bookmakers should make book and leave the ownership of race horses to less interested persons.

ANOTHER STABLE FOR HAGGIN FARM.

Lexington, Ky.. September 14.—The running qualities of the following six two-year-old fillies have been leased by John Morgan of Lexington, of J. B. Haggin and the youngsters will be trained and raced for Morgan by James Ross, the man who developed Cottontown:

Explosive, b. f. by Ranald—Cordite, by Artillery. Sparrow, b. f, by Goldfinch—Galvanette, by Darebin.

JOHN M. P. AND SEWELL GO CHEAPLY.

New York, September 14.—Thirty-nine race horses in training, the property of various owners, including Grant Hugh Browne, J. B. Haggin, August Belmont, H. M. Ziegler and others were sold in the paddock of the Fasig-Tipton Company today. The two stars of the sale, John M. P. and Sewell, brought $5,000 each, and were knocked down to J. E. Widener and C. E. Durnell respectively. King Cobalt went for $2,500 to F. Burlew. A. Stokes bought King Sol for $2,500. The other thirty-five head fetched very low prices. The total received for all was only $22,325.

"RED" WALKER'S FIELD DAY

HIS GOOD HORSE, EDWIN GUM, WINS THE TORONTO AUTUMN CUP.

Stanley Fay from the Same Stable Beats a Fast Field-Prince of Orange is Disqualified-Toronto's Fine Opening.

Toronto, Ont., September 14.—The autumn meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club at Woodbine track opened this afternoon under the most favorable circumstances. The weather was delightfully warm and bright and a crowd of 10,000 people was in attendance. The track was in splendid condition, having been greatly benefited by the recent rains. The fields were large in all of the events, and the finishes in a majority of the races brought the spectators to their feet. Thirty bookmakers cut in and they had all the business they could attend to during the afternoon. They conducted business on the grandstand lawn without any molestation by the authorities. There was a rumor in circulation before the first race that the authorities would take some action against the layers, and this had the effect of scaring away some of the bookmakers' clerks. The rumor, however, proved to be groundless, and when the timid ones were satisfied that there would be no trouble they quickly buckled to. The same system of betting prevailed as at the spring meeting, tickets being given out when a wager was made. The bookmakers were kept on the move and had to change their location after each race.

Seven good races comprised the card with the Toronto Autumn Handicap as the star piece. The Seven good races comprised the card with the Toronto Autumn Handicap as the star piece. The speculators made Mr. Joseph E. Seagram's Mainchance favorite, but the horse ran a disappointing race. He was never a contender at any stage of the game and finished fourth, beaten off. The race went to "Red" Walker's Edwin Gum, one of the outsiders in the betting, which reached the track this morning fresh from his victories at Montreal. When he came home a winner, beating such good ones as Charlie Gilbert, Glimmer and Mainchance, there was surprise.

Edwin Gum's owner is predicting great things for his horse. It is the intention of Mr. Walker to ship Edwin Gum to Oakland next month and try and capture the rich Burns Handicap next winter. Altogether "Red" Walker had a field day. Besides winning the big race of the day with Edwin Gum he had the honor of walking away with the opening race, when Stanley Fay beat a field of twelve horses of all ages, among which were the one-time champion sprinter, Merry England, from the stable of Mr. Seagram, and the speedy mare. Polly Prim. In the mile and a sixteenth race Walker suffered a reverse. His entry, Prince of Orange, finished second to Kelpie, but was disqualified. His jockey Lycurgus, rode foully here and also in the first and fourth races and was suspended for three days by the stewards.

Steve Lane proved the best in the steeplechase contest of the afternoon, it being impossible to tell the winner until the official numbers were posted.

The race was given to Tenancy by Courtesy over ites Have a Hard Time of It.

Lexington, Ky., September 14.—The Kentucky Association's fall meeting of seven days, the first at this season of the year since 1898 opened this afternoon with ideal weather, a fast track, attendance of about 4,000 and thirteen books in line. The betting, however, was light. In the opening race the boy on Funiculaire broke his stirrup at the start. This accounted for the poor showing of the Hayes horse, but there was never any doubt about Colloquy. Nine to twenty was an extremely liberal price. The official time, 1:12½, is a new track record here, numerous timers, however, contend that Mr. Lindenberger was a second too fast. The surprise of the day was the victory of Little Osage, a locally owned colt, in the second race.

Under the handling of Heddel, Hanbridge ran a greatly improved race, quite in contrast with his handling by Preston at Empire City.

Beau Brummel was best in the third race and should have won. He was shut off by Lady Carol at the half-mile ground and again by Telegrapher at the last eighth post. Many expected that Telegrapher would be disqualified. No ciaim, however, was made. Judge Price fined Pickens $25 for his rough riding on Lady Carol. Heidel rode an intelligent race on Judge Treen in the fourth.

From fifth position as they came into the stretch he sent the gelding through next to the rail at the last eighth post and got up just in time to win by a nose from French Nun. In the closing race Paul finished third to Camille and Ouardi, but was disqualified for fouling several horses shortly after the start. The third money was given to Doubt and Watkins, the rider of Paul, was fined $25.

Favorites suffered defeat in most of the races and the layers had a profitable day of it. The narrow track was instrumental in causing much crowding. Today's attendance included most of the prominent breeders of this section and Louisville and Cincinnati sent big delegations.

Winner—Ch. c, by Planudes—Hithyla (trained by J. E. Madden).

Went to post at 3:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Meelick, reserved in close pursuit of the pace, drew out decisively when straightened for home and won off. He was much the best. Firestone helped to force the pace and took a momentary lead on the last turn and in the stretch, but succumbed to the winner's stretch challenge. He was a game second. Julia Powel, away poorly, went wide, finished with a belated end rush and got a bad ride. Live Wire closed up fast in the last quarter. Ben Fleet ran prominently for five furlongs and then quit. Heknows was sway very badly and closed a big gap. Throw out this race. Spooner loomed up well on the inside at the Scratched—70807 Stamina, 111; 70880 Nimbus, 113; 70868 John Marrs, 106.

 8 Winner—Ch. g. by Belvidere—Sallie of Navarre (trained by J. E. Madden).

 Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily: second and third driving. Salvidere, an easy horse to place, was reserved patiently in the rear close up for two miles, moved up and nade good in the last quarter. Montgomery, in great form today, maintained nearest, pursuit of the abnormally slow pace, wore the favorite down in the closing sprint, but succumbed readily to the lightly weighted winner and was seriously handicapped by the slow pace. Ballot was choked and hauled about for two miles in an effort to place him and when let down in the last quarter had nothing left and was easily best. Ironsides, a pronounced rater, had no chance whatever with the ridiculously slow pace and was unequal to sprinting the last quarter with the others. The race was not run truly and the winner was lineky.

Went to post at 4:26. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Tourenne, skillfully reserved within good striking position throughout, got up to win in the last stride of a sensational closing sprint. Aster d'0r maintained strenuous early pursuit of the fast pace and drew out in the last furlong looking all over the winner, but succumbed finally. Phil Finch, outpaced early, finished with his usual fast end rush. Mark Antony II., away flatfooted, was rushed into the lead and, in an effort to dispose of the lightly weighted, but non-staying, attendant, weakened finally and was easily best. Right Royal was badly messed about and never got into serious contention. Leonalla developed amazing speed for seven furlongs and then dropped out. Oxford was unfit to race.

GOOD WORK OF A LIGHTWEIGHT. SHEEPSHEAD TRACK IMPROVEMENTS.

Jockey Albert Sumter, Who Rides for Jimmy McCormick, Weighs Sixty-five Pounds.

McCormick, Weighs Sixty-five Pounds.

New York, September 14.—Jockey Albert Sumter is the baby of the saddle. He weighs but sixty-live pounds and he is truly a midget, but a perfectly formed little human from toes to head, and the latter has its full quota of brains—horse sense shall we call it?

Sumter is probably the smallest boy riding in actual races for hard cash and glory in the metropolitan circuit. He is a comer, too—a lad whose riding is of a pronounced character, and has lately attracted the attention of race-goers as well as turfmen generally. Sumter may not develop into a wonder, but he is just turning sixteen and with a few generous pounds added to his anatomy may within the next year or two shoot to the front as a rider of high ability. Such, at least, is the prediction of many expert turfmen who have studied the midget's splendid control both of himself and his mounts in races, he having displayed judgment and tact in the guidance of his horses in short as well as long distance events.

For one so small and young as Sumter, his management of even a heavy-headed and fractious thoroughbred at post time is indeed remarkable. Seated on the back of a high-strung racer, Sumter is as cool as the proverbial cucumber. His mount may rear, plunge, buckjump, lunge or break; it is all the same with the midget. His admirable sent and the poise of his hands never change. By a quick, but almost impreceivable tightening or loos-cuing of the reins, the drawing of this one or the other as the situation may demand, the digging in of a left or right heel, or the utterance of a soothing command, whispered almost into the ear of the blooded equine he is directing, Sumter has his charge always in ready command. It is noted that no horse intrusted to the care of Sumter has run away with the lad, which is more than can be said of much heavier and more experienced professional riders, and his career has been singularly free from accident.

"How do you—a little mite—manage to control a big unruly horse?" Sumter was asked. "

Two years ago Sumter was a stable lad. He applied himself to his job, and from the first showed an aptitude for a career in the saddle. He has ridden in many races for his employer and others and has piloted many a winner over the line with the judgment and fearlessness of a rider who has a future.

FLAIR'S SISTER IS A GOOD FILLY.

Lesbia Captures the Prince of Wales Stakes in England.

in England.

In the valuable Prince of Wales Plate at York August 27. English patrons of racing were introduced to a smart filly that may in time figure in the list of winners of the Oaks or One Thousand. She evidently made a decided impression in the minds of the crittes, and is a bay filly two years old by St. Frusquin—Glare. In commenting on the race London Sporting Life said:

"Kingsclere also provided the favorite for the Prince of Wales Stakes, a short price being taken about Morena, but there was significant backing for Sir Daniel Cooper's Lesbia, a big, fine, wide-hipped filly of great promise, and an own sister to the smart but unfortunate Flair. For a first performance she did her work in fine style, and before they had gone half way Maher sent her out clear, and, unchallenged thereafter, she won in a canter by three lengths. Lesbia is evidently capable of better things than this and she is a distinct credit to St. Frusquin, while it is to be hoped that her breeder-owner. Sir Daniel Cooper, will experience better luck with her than he did with her sister, Flair. Her next engagement is in the Champagne Stakes at Doncaster, and other engagements this season include the Imperial Breeders' Produce Stakes at Kempton Park, and the Middle Park Plate, both of which races Flair won in her first season. "In no single respect does Lesbia resemble her sister, that speedy mare Flair. The latter had size, quality and shape on her side, whilst Lesbia, though having many good racing points about her, is long and low, and gallops very near to the ground with her hocks well under her. The daughter of St. Frusquin had answered a question at home in very promising style with Little Goose, and as danger was removed from her path when Morena moved off slowly from the gate she won like a faily that one day is likely to be smart over a distance of ground."

DURYEA MAY START TENNESSEE FARM

New York, September 14.—Hickory Valley, Tenn., which does not mean anything to the majority of horse people who read it, may be within a few years famous as a thoroughbred breeding place.

H. B. Duryea, who owns a good many thousand acres down there in the Tennessee country, which are used as a hunting ground, has seriously considered the proposition of establishing a great thorough the proposition of the proposition of the proposition of establishing a great thorough the proposition of the proposition of red the proposition of establishing a great thor-hbred breeding place there and it is said that yearlings now at Saratoga will be sent to Ten-see this fall.

John Huggins, Mr. Duryea's trainer, says that it is possible that Mr. Duryea would start breeding in Tennessee and that the horses he now owns might be sent there some time in the future, though he would not say that would be done the coming winter.

would not say that would be done the coming winter.

The young stallion Irish Lad and some broodmares are now in Kentucky at E. E. Cowdin's farm. Irish Lad has not had time to show his value as a sire yet, but there is every prospect that he will be a great success in the stud, perhaps as great as he was with colors up, which Mr. Duryea would regard an honor indeed. Irish Lad was a great race horse and bred to great mares, as he will be without doubt, he would fifty start a breeding place that should become famous.

SKYO HAS TAKEN HER SPEED HOME.

Lexington, Ky., September 14.—Skyo, Hughes Brothers' crack two-year-old filly bids fair to be quite handy in the racing of Kentucky this fall. She worked five furlongs Thursday over a rather indifferent track in 1:01; the track record is 1:00\(\frac{1}{2}\). She broke slowly and lagged round the first hundred yards. She will race here next week and probably in two or three races at Latonia, So far in her nine starts she has never been out of the money, which is a clean showing for a filly that was a \(\frac{3}{2}\)100 yearling. Hughes Brothers have recently bought of J. B. Haggin six yearlings, including the bay colt, by Kinley Mack—Shannon Rose, by Shannon; a chestnut filly, by Sombrero—Crisis, by Fernandez; a brown colt, by Watercolor, a brown colt, by Horatio; a bay filly, by Greenan and a bay filly, by Order.

FEELINGS THAT WERE UNANIMOUS.

As George Boles was putting up the prices for the Flight Stakes at Sheepshead Bay Thursday, an ex-cited messenger rushed up and exclaimed breath-lessly:

cited messenger rushed up and exclaimed breath-lessly:

"Your clocker says to tell you Roseben won't run one-two."

After the race the same messenger again dashed up and said hurriedly:

"Your clocker said to tell you, if you asked about him, that he's gone home for the day. He's not feeling well."

"If you see him again." replied Boles, "tell not feeling well."
"If you see him again." replied Boles, "tell him I'm not feeling well either."

Track To Be Eleven Furlongs Long-Stands

New York, September 14.—Contracts were let recently for the improvements planned at Sheepshead Bay and work on the reconstruction of the course will begin next Monday. Superintendent Frank Clark will have direct charge of the work and will push it with all possible dispatch in order that everything may be completed for the opening of the spring meeting next year.

Mr. Clark thinks that with anything like good weather the work of rebuilding and extending the track can be accomplished by January 1, and it will then have almost six months in which to settle. It has been definitely decided to make the track one mile and three furlongs in circumference and races at one mile and a half will be run around one turn.

The work will necessitate the moving of several barns on the backstretch and on the turn, but these will not be disturbed until after the racing season has ended, though the work will not suffer in the meantime.

After completing the improvements to the track proper, Mr. Clark will devote his energies to remodeling the grandstand, or at least that portion of it next to the clubhouse. All of the upper end will be made into a members' stand, with boxes in the lower tier as well as in the tier above. The main body of the stand will undergo no change.

By turning the clubhouse end of the stand into a members' stand, owners and trainers, who have always made this section their rendezvous during the running of a race, will be at a disadvantage unless ample provision is made for them elsewhere. This should and will no doubt be done, as it is up to the association to provide a good point of vantage for the men who are kept in the paddock by their duties until the horses go to the post, and for whom a stand convenient to the paddock but at the same time so placed that the trainers may see all the incidents of the running of the race, should be provided.

DEATH OF ALEXANDER SHIELDS.

A figure for many years well known on the American turf will be seen on more. Alexander Shields died in his Brooklyn home Friday, failing to withstand an attack of typhoid fever. The dead turfman was sixty-five years old and for thirty or more years had been racing thoroughbreds over the racetracks of the United States and Canada. Few are the tracks in this country that he did not visit with his horses at one time or another, extending his operations from Toronto to New Orleans and from New York to San Francisco.

Of the many horses he owned in his long career the great stayer and weight carrier Advance Guard was perhaps best. Go Between and Logan were good horses also. Logan was remarkable for hardihood. In the winter of 1895-6 Logan was raced at New Orleans until well along in December and was shipped from there to San Francisco. He arrived there in the forenoon of January 6, 1896 and about five hours after his arrival was started in a mile dash at Bay District track. That he had just landed from a long and trying car trip was known to all and it was not supposed he would cut much figure in the race, so he was a 20 to 1 shot in the betting. But with 119 pounds up he ran the mile in 1:40) and won from Yo el Rey Lismore, Vinctor and Catch'em, Vinctor being a 1 to 5 favorite. It was this and similar feats that gave him the solviquet of the "iron horse."

Of late years Shields had confined his racing operations mainly to the New York tracks and became wealthy through the earnings of Advance Guard, Go Between, Hunter Raine, Young Henry and other winners of lesser note. His most notable success was winning the Suburban of 1906 with Go Between. This horse got him into trouble last year when an investigation showed he was a stallion, whereas he had been raced as a gelding for some time. This misadventure is said to have preyed on his mind greatly and may have contributed to his ,death.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

E. C. Blume's speedy sprinter, Susannah, three years old, by Filigrane—Caroona, was shot at Seattle a few days ago.

John E. Madden has surrendered his second call on the services of jockey Mountain, who will stay east and do the best he can as a free lance.

George Hendrie's crack filly, Grande Dame, who failed to win in the east, has been thrown out of training and will not be seen in public again this year.

Henry McDaniel is no longer training either Good Luck or Eddie Ware for M. H. Tichenor and Louis Newgass. He has, at Mr. Newgass' request, turned those horses over to John Schorr.

The reason that Colin and Celt did not go in yesterday's Great Eastern Handicap, to which they were both eligible, was that handicapper Yosburgh assigned Colin 135 pounds and Celt 124 pounds. Fred Burlew, who changes his mind as often as his clothes, now declares that he will not start Chapultepec again until New Orleans. Burlew is said to have his eye on the Inaugural Handicap for the colt.

The majority of the crowd did not look at Thursday's second race at all because there was no chance to bet on Jim Gaffney at 1 to 5.—New York Sun. Yet we are led to believe that betting is subordinate in the awful east.

John Shields has decided to point Go Between, the Meddler horse he purchased privately from his father. Alex Shields, and Edward R. Thomas a few days back, for the Brighton Cup and for the long-distance races to be run at Bennings in the fall.

W. C. Hayes is trying very hard to get his old jumper, Grandpa, back to form for the Belmont Park meeting. Grandpa has been something of a disappointment this year, but Mr. Hayes still hopes to win a race or two with him before the season

Al Goodin, now in the west, has disposed of all his horses except Money Muss, this gelding having developed lameness, and is being held for the present. Goodin is on his way east, and threatens to acquire some more horses for a California camerican paign.

Frank D. Skinner, who was the presiding judge at Butte this season, will officiate in a similar capacity at Vancouver, British Columbia. James Healy, otherwise known as "Morello Jim," who is assistant to Arthur McKnight at Seattle, will act as starter at the Hastings track.

Before Nealon left the paddock to start in the Russet Handicap at Sheepshead Bay Thursday trainer F. M. Taylor told jockey Knapp not to use his whip under any circumstances. These instructions, as the race was run, were costly, for with a few blows from the lash Nealon would probably have won instead of losing by a short head.

"Roseben," remarked Henry McDaniel after the have won instead of losing by a short head.

"Roseben," remarked Henry McDaniel after the finish of the Flight Stakes at Sheepshead Bay, "is better than he ever was before. In spite of the heaviness of the going he has just run an eighth of a mile in 11 flat. It was the third eighth of the Flight. After stepping the first quarter in 24½ he went to the three-eighths pole, according to my watch, in 35½. That is what I call running. I do not consider Roseben a good miler as a general proposition, but it is more than possible that he can in his present condition go eight furlongs over the Belmont or Brighton course in better than 1:37."—New York Telegraph.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, SEPTEMBER 15, 1907.

THIS WEEK'S GRAVESEND STAKES.

Notable Collection of Turf Events To Be Decided at Brooklyn.

The splendid Sheepshead Bay meeting came to a close yesterday and racing will begin tomorrow at the neighboring Gravesend track. The Flatlands Stakes for two-year-olds at five and a half fur-longs, and the Oriental Handicap for two-year-olds and over at a mile and a quarter, will be disposed of in the course of the day's sport, the names of the probable starters appearing in this issue of Daily Racing Form. The Bayshore Stakes will be run Tuesday. It is for three-year-olds and over at about six furlongs under selling conditions, and will probably bring to the post a selection from such fast ones as Tom McGrath, Preen, Keator, Scenrity, Ben Ban, Jacobite, Tony Bonero, Handzarra, Aeronaut, Edna Jackson, Lady Anne, Sir Toddington, J. C. Core, Lotus, Rye, Druid, Carthage. Saracinesca, Ingham and Frank Lord.

The Willow Handicap for two-year-old filles will be decided Wednesday. Notasulga, Julia Powel, Lady Winifred, Megg's Hill, Red Bonnet, Please, Black Mary, Gowan, Marbles, Desirous, Park View, Mombassa, Black Mary, Aimee C., Half Sovereign, Fond Heart, Beckon, Ella O'Neill and other speedy ones are in this event. Thursday will bring about the running of the Brookwood Steeplechase and Oceanview Handicap. The Brookwood is over the short course of about two miles, and Caller, Sheriff Williams, Jimmy Lane, Garrett, St. Volma, Gus Straus, Grandpa, McKittredge, Buckman, Pagan Bey and Goldleur are among the good jumpers nominated. The Oceanview is at a mile and a sixteenth for three-year-olds, and numbers such good performers as Veil, Superman, Frank Gill, Montgomery, Charles Edward, McCarter, Baby Wolf, Westbury, Kentucky Beau, Fountainblue, W. H. Daniel, Prince Hampton, Tourenne, Tony Faust, Oraculum, Yankee Girl and Conville among its entries.

The long-established Speculation Stakes will be the feature of Friday's racing. It is at a mile Daniel, Prince Hampton, Tourenne, Tony Faust, Oraculum, Yankee Girl and Conville among its entries.

The long-established Speculation Stakes will be the feature of Friday's racing. It is at a mile and a sixteenth, and with Sister Frances, Zethus, Don Enrique, Voladay, Acrobat, Hyperion II., Fancy Bird, Tom Dolan, Dreamer, Temaceo, Grapple, Rapid Water, Tony Bonero, J. C. Core, Smiling Tom, Lord Lovat. Sir Toddington, Rye, Good Luck, Ampedo, Druid and Carthage prominent in its entry list, should furnish a good race indeed.

Saturday will be one of the banner days of the meeting, with the Hitchcock Steeplechase, Junior Champion Stakes for two-year-olds, and the First Special for three-year-olds and over as stake attractions. The Hitchcock has about all the good jumpers of the time engaged. The mighty Colin will probably appear in the rich Junior Champion, in which he will have to carry 127 pounds. Uncle, Johnuic Blake, Jim Gaffney, Bar None, Notasulga, Firestone, Stamina, Ben Fleet, Celt, Colort, King James, Julia Powel, Lady Winffred and Nimbus are, other cracks in this race, but if Colin goes to the post there will not be much doubt as to the result, In the mile and a quarter First Special are such stars as Ballot, Superman, Salvidere, Charles Edward, Nealon, Running Water, Frank Gill, Electioneer, Dr. Gardner, Far West, Tokalon, Montgomery, Tony Faust, McCarter and Perverse. It is at weight for age, and a grand race is impeding.

STORY OF THE GATES CAMPAIGN.

All Wall street is chuckling over the story of how John W. Gates, before his departure for Europe, took $400,000 away from the bookmakers at the New York tracks by a systematic campaign that was wortly of the Gates of the old days, says the New York American.

He started in by forming a combination with the wily "Boots" Durnell. Durnell, who knows the horse from the ground up, was to handle the horses, while Gates managed the finances.

From Gates' apartment to the stable a private telephone line was strung, and at all hours of the day and night the once big Wall street plunger knew just what the horses were doing.

It was a case of the shrewd speculator who had dared to oppose Belmont and Morgan in the street using his brains in a gamble where brains and knowledge are of the greatest value.

The first big coup pulled off by the Gates crowd was when Nealon won the Suburban. It is safe to say that John W. cleaned up at least $60,000. Then came the plunges on Tony Faust, Joe Nealon, Rapid Water, Jacobite and Carthage.

Then it became known that Gates had told the owners of Carthage to put their horse in a selling race and that he would protect him. The first race of Carthage to put their horse in a selling race and that he would protect the entry.

When Gates had cleaned up $400,000 he announced that he was done. He was going abroad and Durnell was to sell his horses. He did sell them and John W. went abroad. The bookies are still wondering about it.

1908 RACING PLANS OF W. J. YOUNG.

Lexington, Ky., September 14.—The Latonia Derby winner, The Abbot, and his stable companion, W. J. Young's smart two-year-old Great Pirate, have been turned out until December. The colts are considered to have deserved a rest. Young is going south again this season early in January to Hot Springs. He has a band of six yearlings and with his older horses he will have what looks like his best stable next season.

MILLBROOK STUD TO BE SOLD.

Lexington, Ky., September 14.—The announce ment is made officially here tonight that Andrew Miller, F. C. and C. M. Bishop will sell their Millbrook Stud located at the Oakwood Farm of the late, C. F. McMeekin the last week in November through the Fasig-Tipton Company. They have bere the noted French stallion Adam, the good sir Handspring and thirty-three head of choice brood mares bought last year. They have taken a ten year lease on Oakwood Stud.

New York. September 14.—Muller, the obscure rider, who was first selected to pilot Golden Shore in the third race, was so overcome with the responsibility reposed in him by the playing contingent who backed the Golden Garter gelding heavily at 15 to 1, that he fell off while parading to the post, allowing his mount to run away two miles before the race. But for this unlucky mishap one of the biggest killings of the year might have been pulled off. The remarkable run afterwards made by Golden Shore in the actual race warrants the belief that it would,
